POLICE COURT.—The following cases were disposed of before this court yester-

Fayewell Dudley (colored), assaulting and beating Julia Brown, was fined $2.50. Henry Williams alias Phil. Howlett (colored) was fined 85 for creating a disturbance at the Danville depôt and resisting the John Page (colored) was fined $2.50 for beating Henry Williams in the street.

W. A. Turner (colored) was fined $2.50 for disorderly conduct in the street, Edward Taylor (colored), charged with assaulting and abusing his wife, was required to give surety to be of good be-havior for ninety days.

Ellen Bland (colored) was jailed for six months for petit larceny. ERICSSON VS. MANCHESTER.-The jury in this case yesterday, after a brief retirement, brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, Mr. Ericsson, and assessed the damages at $4,950. This verdiet preclusies the possibility of appeal, as $5,000 is the smallest amount that can be taken to the Court of Appeals. The case has been a long and a tedious one, and its settlement will be hailed with satisfaction. Ericsson sued for damages resulting from a fall from the Manchester embankment of the

M. J. Powers has fitted up a first-class callery at 525 Broad street, between Fifth ranged on the most improved plan. Special attention has been paid to this room to secure the best angle of light and ventila-tion, and we believe that it will prove cool grounds, carved balustrades, rustic floorcloths, &c. He will give his special attention to the operating department, and has ample and competent assistance, and, if possible, supply the public with better if possible, supply the public with better work than ever before.

Mr. Powers will start on an extended trip through the North the latter part of August for the purpose of thoroughly post-ing himself on any and every new process and novelty connected with his business worthy of note, as he is determed to give his patrons as good if not better work than is done anywhere else in the United States, and we trust that he may be as sucessful as his great talents and devotion to Virginia, his native State, entitle him to.

Briefs.—The decision of the Ericsson out in the United States District Court at Richmond for $4,950 in favor of the plain-tiff on Saturday was an event so totally untill on Saturday was taken by surprise. Of course the money will have to be paid, but the people, it is needless to say, had hoped otherwise.
